

Author Ruth Dugdall to Visit 3 July 2015

Top crime writer Ruth Dugdall is visiting Harwich & Dovercourt High School on Friday 3rd July 2015, starting at 6.30pm.

This is a free event open to members of the public. If you would like to attend, please contact the school library manager, Andrew Dace, by email, phone or in person at the school. Alternatively, visitors are welcome to come along on the evening.

01255 245460 Ext 225

Andrew.Dace@harwich.essex.sch.uk

Ruth is the winner of the CWA Debut Dagger and the Luke Bitmead Bursary, and has been shortlisted for the New Angle Book Prize and People's Book Prize. She has written four novels in total, three of which feature probation officer Cate Austin. 'Humber Boy B', her latest thrilling psychological novel, was published recently and draws parallels with the Jamie Bulger case in 1993. Her professional background as a probation officer gives her writing authenticity and credibility.

Reviews on 'Humber Boy B':

'Intelligent and gripping. Ruth Dugdall is a huge talent.' Sophie Hannah

'Humber Boy B is extraordinary.' Elizabeth Forbes

'Twisty, profound and completely convincing, it grips the reader by the heart. Unputdownable.' Erin Kelly

Ruth will be taking about aspects of writing, such as her experiences as a novelist and how her ideas originate.

Signed copies of her books will be available for purchase* on the night; please see titles and prices below.

The James Version - £7.99

The Woman before Me - £7.99

The Sacrificial Man - £7.99

Humber Boy B - £8.99

SPECIAL OFFER – BUY ANY TWO BOOKS FOR £15.00!

*Books to be paid for with cash only please.

Plus win a signed copy of Humber Boy B and other prizes – in a raffle to be held at the event!!