

Visit of children's author Dan Freedman to Harwich & Dovercourt High School – Year 7s

Dear Parent/carer,

On Wednesday 8th February 2017 the school will be visited by the best-selling novelist Dan Freedman. Having previously worked with the England Football Team - and interviewed players such as Ronaldo and Messi - Dan has now written the series of Jamie Johnson novels, which follow the young prodigy as he strives to make it as a top star. The books are for boys and girls and are about family, friends, football and chasing your dreams.

Having been endorsed by Steven Gerrard and Gary Lineker, the Jamie Johnson series has sold over a half a million copies and recently been adapted for TV by the BBC.

There will also be a book signing. If you would like to take this unique opportunity for your child to purchase Dan's books and have them signed by the author, please give your child the correct money or cheque, made out to Dan Freedman, to bring in on Wednesday 8th February 2017.

The order of the books is below but they can be read also be read as one-off stories.

Books are subject to availability.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Dace
