

HDHS Student Book Reviews:

Still Water by Chris Priestley

Book name: Still Water

Author: Chris Priestley

Student Reviewer: Andieleigh Courtney 8HTCH

I have read the book 'Still Water' and I loved it! This book has inspired me to want to read more books like this. If you like mystery books and dark turns you will enjoy this book as I did! I would recommend this book to readers who are aged 12+. It's sad at the start and you will see why if you read the book but at the very end it's a happy ending! I hope you consider reading Still Water. It definitely is five stars out of five stars.

HDHS is a reading school -
Reading for purpose and reading for pleasure

Wonder by R.J Palacio

Student Reviewer: Gracie White 8WAMO

Wonder is a children' novel written by an American author, R J palacio.

I would give this book 5.5 stars out of 5 because it is that good!

It is a story about a boy called Auggie that is different from everyone else physically( he has a facial disfigurement) and he struggles when he goes to school for the first time. This is a book for both children and adults as it has an important message about being nice and kind to each other.

There is nothing I would change about this book.I enjoyed every page of 'Winder'.I would recommend every adult and child to read this book.

Goosebumps: Revenge of the Lawn Gnomes by R. L. Stine

Student Reviewer: Alesha Ash 7WSCO

Goosebumps: Revenge of the Lawn Gnomes by R.L. Stine is a horror book for children but it does contain funny bits that made me laugh. I would give this book 3 stars out of 5 stars. It is a story about a boy called Joe who bought two gnomes that surprisingly come alive and get up to mischief when everybody is asleep. The best part of the book is the first chapter and it really sets up the story. I would recommend it to anyone who likes horror and mystery stories.

HDHS is a reading school -
Reading for purpose and reading for pleasure

